Meta Dittman, aged 17, committed suicide at Minneapolis, because she failed to make good as a stenographer.

Mrs. Hettie Green, now 78, joined the Episcopal church in New York Sunday. She had heretofore been a Quaker.

Carmi Thompson, the President's new private secretary, is from Ohio, though his first name sounds like he might be from Illinois.

The papers are running a picture of Champ Clark and Woodrow Wilson shaking hands and both smiling. Woodrow's smile is almost a laugh, while Champ's is a sickly grin.

Postmaster General Hitchcock, who was Republican National chairman in 1907, says it took $1,650,588 to elect the Republican ticket that year. He said complete records of the campaign were accessible.

Governor Blease of South Carolina is accused of selling pardons, Judge Archbald is being impeached for selling decisions and New York is in the throes of a graft exposure in police circles. All of which shows that there is more truth than poetry in the proverb, "Money is the root of all evil."

Claiming the record for American mothers, Mrs. William Moore, of Bellefontaine, O., points with pride to the fact that she has ushered into life twenty-six children, including seven twins. Mrs. Moore was born in Columbiana county in 1863. A former husband was the father of one and Mr. Moore of the rest, 12 of whom are alive.

E. M. Jameson, a New York girl, was saved from drowning by Julian Diaz, a volunteer lifesaver and after reappearing from the bath-house fully dressed Miss Jameson walked up to Diaz and saying she wanted to reward him kissed him on both cheeks. "That's reward enough," gasped the ungallant rescuer, instead of offering his mouth for a real kiss.

Banquet At the Latham.

The banquet at Hotel Latham last Tuesday night was highly enjoyed by all present. There was an even dozen around the board. T. J. McReynolds was toastmaster, and Mr. E. A. Benson, of Omaha, Neb., was the special guest of the Florida Land Co.

Lost In the Desert.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 17.—Five Los Angeles residents, two young girls and three men, are lost on the desert east of San Bernardino, beyond Warner's Springs. The party went out in an automobile in search of government land. No word has been heard of them for six days.

Back Next Week.

Frankfort, Ky., July 19.—When Gov. McCreary returns to the executive office, probably next Monday, he will find plenty of official business to keep him engaged. Among the matters of immediate importance are appointments to departmental positions, upon which he will be consulted.

Separate Schools.

Phoenix, Ariz., July 19.—Reversing the decision of the lower court in the case of S. A. Bayless, a negro, against the Phoenix board of education, the state supreme court upheld the recently enacted state law to segregate the negroes from the white children in the public schools. The Bayless suit was based on the contention that, under the federal constitution, his children had the right to attend the school with the white children.

SULZER BILL

Creating A New Cabinet Officer Is Passed.

Washington, July 18.—Without a dissenting vote the Sulzer bill creating a new department of labor was passed by the house. Sulzer was given an ovation immediately afterward when he was called to take the speaker's chair to preside over the house. The measure which would add a new secretary to the president's cabinet was passed without a roll call.

Chairman McCombs.

William F. McCombs' acquaintance with Governor Wilson dates back to the time when the Governor was president of Princeton university, and McCombs was a Princeton man, class of '98. They have been close friends ever since. McCombs was born in Ashley, Ark., Dec. 26, 1875, and after being graduated from Princeton and then Harvard Law school, he went to New York City to seek his fortune. He entered as clerk in a big law firm, where his struggles, disappointments and little triumphs were very similar to those experienced by other aspiring young lawyers who have no pull and no influential friends, only William F. McCombs' work was always characterized by thoroughness and persistency.

McCombs climbed up until he attained a position of prominence at the New York bar, and always found time to keep in touch with politics. He ran for assemblyman once and was defeated, but cut a large Republican majority down to almost nothing. That was about the extent of his personal adventures into politics until last spring. Then all he undertook was the management of Wilson's literary bureau; but the man had been found for the place. Gradually McCombs' genius for organization and grasp of detail was called upon more and more as exigencies arose and presently, almost without his realizing it and certainly without design, William F. McCombs had taken over entire management of the Wilson campaign.

Chairman McCombs is a bachelor and a club man, very busy and very efficient and he regards his elevation in national politics as only one more service to perform, which he will set about performing in his usual thorough, masterful way.

Now he is chairman of the Democratic National Campaign Committee, a person of some importance, likely to be pretty close to the next president and a good man to be acquainted with in that event.

SEVEN YEARS OF MISERY

How Mrs. Bethune was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Sikeston, Mo. — "For seven years I suffered everything. I was in bed for four or five days at a time every month, and so weak I could hardly walk. I had cramps, backache and headache, and was so nervous and weak that I dreaded to see anyone or have anyone move in the room. The doctors gave me medicine to ease me at those times, and said that I ought to have an operation. I would not listen to that, and when a friend of my husband's told him about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it had done for his wife, I was willing to take it. Now I look the picture of health and feel like it, too. I can do all my own housework, work in the garden and entertain company and enjoy them, and can walk as far as any ordinary woman, any day in the week. I wish I could talk to every suffering woman and girl, and tell them what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Mrs. DEMA BETHUNE, Sikeston, Mo.

Remember, the remedy which did this was Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

It has helped thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing down feeling, indigestion, and nervous prostration, after all other means have failed. Why don't you try it?

At Universalist Church.

There will be services at the Universalist church next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Subject, "Salvation." Everybody cordially invited. Sunday School at 10 a. m.
